ST. MARY'S HOLY DORMITION

Scripture Readings

Epistle: Romans 5:1-10

Brethren, therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; and perseverance, character; and character, hope. Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us. For when we were still without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die. But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him. For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life.

Gospel: Matthew 6:22-33

The Lord said: The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness! No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? Which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature? So why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Calhan Community Highlights

We want to wish every single American and member of this community this past week a happy 4th of July! Let us give thanks to God that we all live in a land that is free and where we are free to worship Him who saves. May He Grant All of those who fight to protect and keep their Memories Eternal to all of those who have lost their lives protecting this great nation.

Pierogies for Sale

Did you know that Pierogies taste like a piece of heaven? Wait...you didn't? Well then, why don't you buy some from Butch and find out what you are missing! Get them today before they are all gone.

Adult Faith Forum Returns (July 10th)

Please note, Adult Faith Forum returns this week at its usual time and place. Please join us! Everyone is welcome!

Coffee Hour Moved to Trojanovich Picnic

There will be no normal coffee hour today in the hall. Instead, everyone is invited to go to the Trojanovich Picnic at the Calhan Park for some fellowship and fun. We will see you there!

Slavic Fest Committee (July 21st)

While the kids are having fun playing Mario Kart, our first Slavic Fest meeting will be happening in the Hall. This will be a general meeting and a way to get the ball going now before things get too hectic with end of summer events, back to school, end of summer vacations, and so forth. We will be discussing many new ideas for this year's festival, some of which are extending the hours, having more vendors, and creating and selling another cookbook and t-shirts. So please add this to your calendars and come with your ideas to help make this the best Slavic Fest Calhan has ever seen!

Parish Council (July 14th)

Friendly reminder to Parish Council Members we will be having our normal monthly meeting after Coffee Hour. Please note that this will not be a normal potluck as Coffee Hour is sponsored by Dee and Harold Eurich in remembrance of their son Eugene. However, you are still welcome to bring something as always.

Youth Activities

July

21st - Sunday after Divine Liturgy
Mario Kart Tournament

Racers! Start your engines! On Sunday the 21st, we will be having a Mario Kart Tournament after Divine Liturgy in the Hall. Just like our Smash Bros tournament, there will be fun and some great prizes for all age brackets. So make sure you stay after Church on Sunday the 21st for this fun event.

24th - 27th
Rocky Mountain Orthodox Youth Camp

For those who are going to camp this year, forms and money are due today! If you are still interested in having your child going, the cost is $185 per child and you will need to pay and have the forms filled out before departing for the picnic. For those who are going, we are working on arranging transportation to the camp and will have more details soon. If you have any other questions see Fr. Stephen or Fr. Benjamin Huggins at 970-689-4777 / FrBenjamin.Huggins@gmail.com

August

2nd-3rd
Youth Retreat @ Protection of Holy Virgin Monastery

Mother Cassiana has extended a warm invite to our young people to come spend a couple days at her monastery for both a time of reflection and activity. This will be an overnight event and will require the kids to pack both a sleeping bag and overnight necessities. Please see Fr. Stephen to let him know you are interested in going by the end of July.

5th @ Time TBD
End of the Year Church School Event @ Waterworld in Denver

We are celebrating our end of the Church School year by taking the youth to Waterworld up in Denver. The parish is covering admission. More information will be made available soon but we do need volunteers who can bring lunch and also a headcount on who is going. Please see any church school teacher or Fr. Stephen to let them know your kids are going.
