

ON OUR OUTLOOK

A Monk sat outside the gate of the town selling his handiwork. One day a traveler asked him “What kind of people live in this town?”

Thinking a moment, the Monk asked him “What kind of people lived in the town you came from?”

“Oh, they were horrid people,” replied the traveler. “They lied, cheated, stole, fought and were monstrous to one another.”

“That is the kind of people you will find in this town,” said the Monk.

A while later another traveler asked the Monk “What kind of people live in this town?”

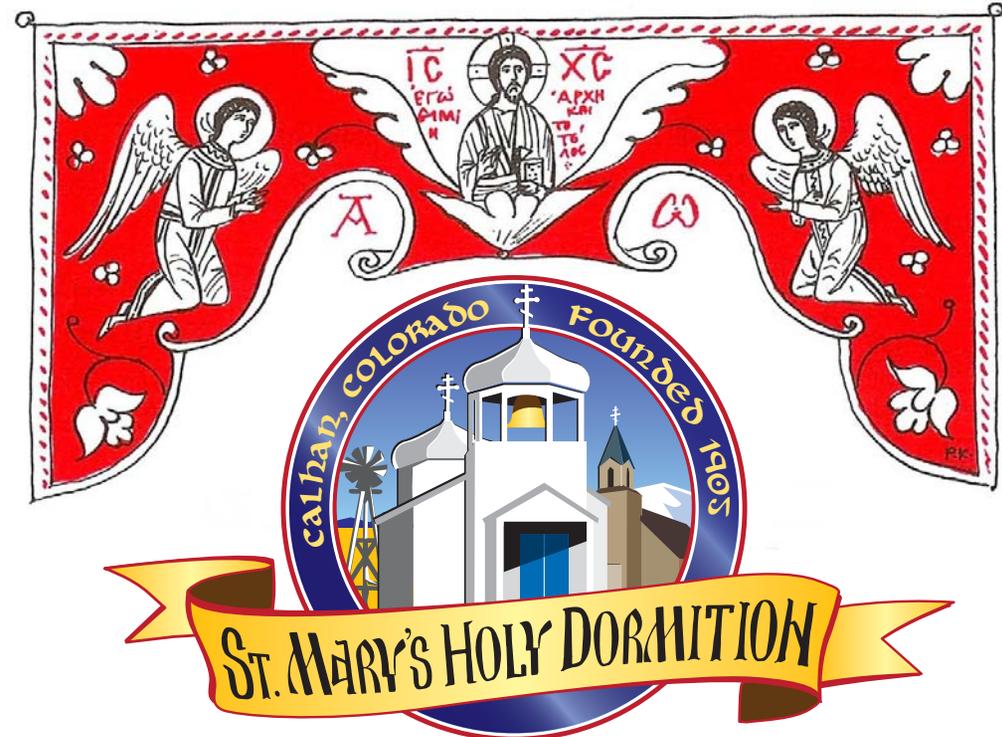

Again, the Monk asked him “What kind of people lived in the town you came from?”

“Oh, they were wonderful people,” replied the new traveler. “They were kind, loving, humble, and charitable. They would give you the shirt off their back if you needed it.”

“That is the kind of people you will find in this town,” said the Monk.
