ST. MARY'S HOLY DORMITION

Scripture Readings

Epistle: Romans 5:1-10

Brethren, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; and perseverance, character; and character, hope. Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us. For when we were still without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die. But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him. For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life.

Gospel: Matthew 6:22-33

The Lord said, the lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness! No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? Which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature? So why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Youth: Letters to Vera and Joey

Since we still cannot go and visit Vera and Joey and they cannot leave their perspective space at the Nursing Home in Simla, we are asking that every young person in the parish write a letter, create some art, etc...that we can collectively send to both of Vera and Joey, letting them know how much we are praying, thinking, and missing them. We will send this on the July 6th so please have whatever your child/ren put together dropped off at the church or to Fr. Stephen's house by the 5th.

Restrictions on Services

We are still limiting the attendance in services based on proper distancing, however after a careful study of our space, its been determined that we can effectively have up to 40 inside the church with every other pew empty. This number is only the case with estimated families that live together (as they don't have to be 6 feet apart.) If we exceed 40, all of those who come after will have to watch the service either from their cars on phones/tablets, online at home (coming to the Church for Communion), or in the Hall on the TV. For those attending, everyone must wear masks, practice proper distancing, wash their hands, and take temperatures at home prior to coming. If you are over the age of 65, you are allowed to come to services, however you are also encouraged to stay home and watch online.

Divine Liturgy Tomorrow for SS. Peter and Paul

Tomorrow morning we will have liturgy for the feast day of Saints Peter and Paul at 8 AM. Since attendance at daily services is usually low, we will only stream the service online and not in the hall. This is also a great chance for those who have not felt comfortable yet to come to Liturgy. Join us!

Parish Council (June 28th)

Parish Council will be having our monthly meeting today after Liturgy at the rectory in our normal place. The chairs will be spaced out and distancing will be observed. Masks are required. Those who wish to participate via phone, may call in. Let Fr. Stephen know if you will be calling in.

Prayers for Sheila

Please offer up prayers for Sheila who recently had hysterectomy surgery. The surgery went well but she is still having pain. May God look after the handmaiden of God, Marie and give her strength and calmness during this difficult time.

A personal note from Mat. Lindsey

Mat. Lindsey wanted to share a personal note in this week's bulletin: "Thank you to everyone for all their love and prayers while I went through my surgery. I am so happy by all the love that everyone shared with me and the cards I received wishing me a healthy recovery. I am doing much better and couldn't do so without all of your support. Thank you and may God bless you all."
