ST. MARY'S HOLY DORMITION

Scripture Readings

Epistle: Galatians 6:11-18

Brethren, see with what large letters I have written to you with my own hand! As many as desire to make a good showing in the flesh, these would compel you to be circumcised, only that they may not suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. For not even those who are circumcised keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may boast in your flesh. But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but a new creation. And as many as walk according to this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God. From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus. Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Gospel: Luke 8:41-56

At that time, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus' feet and begged Him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as He went, the multitudes thronged Him. Now a woman, having a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and could not be healed by any, came from behind and touched the border of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped. And Jesus said, "Who touched Me?" When all denied it, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes throng and press You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'" But Jesus said, "Somebody touched Me, for I perceived power going out from Me." Now when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before Him, she declared to Him in the presence of all the people she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately. And He said to her, "Daughter, be of good cheer; your faith has made you well. Go in peace." While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher." But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will be made well." When He came into the house, He permitted no one to go in except Peter, James, and John, and the father and mother of the girl. Now all wept and mourned for her; but He said, "Do not weep; she is not dead, but sleeping." And they ridiculed Him, knowing that she was dead. But He put them all outside, took her by the hand and called, saying, "Little girl, arise." Then her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. And He commanded that she be given something to eat. And her parents were astonished, but He charged them to tell no one what had happened.

WISDOM

The perfect person does not only try to avoid evil. Nor does he do good for fear of punishment, still less in order to qualify for the hope of a promised reward. The perfect person does good through love. His actions are not motivated by desire for personal benefit, so he does not have personal advantage as his aim. But as soon as he has realized the beauty of doing good, he does it with all his energies and in all that he does. He is not interested in fame, or a good reputation, or a human or divine reward. The rule of life for a perfect person is to be in the image and likeness of God.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Youth: Trunk or Treat 2020

The modified form of our annual Trunk or Treat was a success. Thank you to everyone who participated. Hopefully next year we can return to our normal format and make it even better than this year.

Bake Sale Update (Nov. 22nd)

With only a couple weeks until our bake sale, we are still receiving pre-orders on our website but we have not received any paper orders. If you are interested in ordering, please take an order form from the Narthex and turn it in as soon as possible to give the bakers a chance to know how much to bake. You do not have to pay now, but if you would like to pay ahead of time, please see Lori Meier or Fr. Stephen. We are taking credit cards but would prefer cash or check to cut on processing fees. We also have our online portal setup at: holydormition.net/store/ which has all 3 payment options. All orders are preorders and to be picked up outside our parish hall on November 22nd from 12-3 pm. With Health Regulations in mind, everything will be pre-packaged. We will allow folks to come inside and pick up their goods but we also are more than happy to bring anything you ordered out to your car. If you have any further questions, please see Fr. Stephen or any parish council member and thank you to everyone who has volunteered to help with this special event. Also, if you would like to help advertise the event, we have flyers next to the order form. Please help spread the word.

Parish Council (Next Sunday Nov. 15th...and today for a moment).

Parish Council members, we will be having our monthly meeting next Sunday after Liturgy. Same rules from last month apply. Fr. Stephen would also like to have a quick informal meeting today after Liturgy to discuss 2 small items.

Photo Directory

The photoshoots are coming along nicely and we only have a few to go. Fr. Stephen has been reaching out to everyone and if he has left anyone out or you have not yet scheduled your photo, please see him as soon as possible to get that taken care of.

New Streaming Camera

Huge thank you to the Stevens family for their donation of our new camera for streaming. The camera is far superior and gives us the possibility of eventually having multiple cameras setup that will change as the service goes on. We are still working out the kinks so the next couple services streamed online might be a little clunky. We apologize for any issues and thanks for your patience.
