

ST. MARY'S HOLY DORMITION

Scripture Readings

Epistle: Galatians 1:11-19

Brethren, I make known to you, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man. For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through the revelation of Jesus Christ. For you have heard of my former conduct in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God beyond measure and tried to destroy it. And I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries in my own nation, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb and called me through His grace, to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went to Arabia, and returned again to Damascus. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and remained with him fifteen days. But I saw none of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother.

Gospel: Luke 8:26-39

At that time, they sailed to the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee. And when He stepped out on the land, there met Him a certain man from the city who had demons for a long time. And he wore no clothes, nor did he live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out, fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, "What have I to do with You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!" For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had often seized him, and he was kept under guard, bound with chains and shackles; and he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the wilderness. Jesus asked him, saying, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," because many demons had entered him. And they begged Him that He would not command them to go out into the abyss. Now a herd of many swine was feeding there on the mountain. So they begged Him that He would permit them to enter them. And He permitted them. Then the demons went out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the lake and drowned. When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the country. Then they went out to see what had happened, and came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. They also who had seen it told them by what means he who had been demon-possessed was healed. Then the whole multitude of the surrounding region of the Gadarenes asked Him to depart from them, for they were seized with great fear. And He got into the boat and returned. Now the man from whom the demons had departed begged Him that he might be with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, "Return to your own house, and tell what great things God has done for you." And he went his way and proclaimed throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

WISDOM

"Moreover, if the Devil does not dare to enter into the house where the Gospel lies, much less will he ever seize upon the soul which contains such thoughts as these, and no evil spirit will approach it, nor will the nature of sin come near. Well, then, sanctify your soul, sanctify your body by having these thoughts always in your heart and on your tongue. For if foul language is defiling and evokes evil spirits, it is evident that spiritual reading sanctifies the reader and attracts the grace of the Spirit."

- St. John Chrysostom

WEEKLY JOKES

*What did the Jedi say to the kid dressed up as a sheep?
May The Force Be With Ewe!*

Harry Potter puns can Slytherin to any conversation.

A woman whose husband often came home after having too much to drink decided to cure him of the habit. One Halloween night, she put on a devil suit and hid behind a tree to intercept him on the way home. When her husband came by, she jumped out and stood before him with her red horns, long tail, and pitchfork. "Who are you?" he asked. "I'm the Devil!" she responded. "Well, come on home with me," he said, "I married your sister!"

WELCOME! LORD IT IS GOOD TO BE HERE!

The Come and See Challenge:

Have you brought someone NEW this month?
Have you gone to Great Vespers at least once this month?
When was the last time you went to Confession?

MVEA Dinner

A very special thank you from the Rose Marie Ladies and Fr. Stephen for everyone who came out and helped with the MVEA dinner! We had over 29 people help put on the event. Special thanks to Greg for the wonderful pumpkin pies* and you are all very much appreciated. Thank you for stepping up and may God Grant you all Many Years!!!

*Fr. Stephen does not endorse this message.

Prune Pierogi, Noodles, and Halupki still for sale

We have plenty left over from Slavic Fest. Please see Butch if you are interested in buying some for the holidays or just in general.

Group Church School Today

Today the kids (all grades) will go right to the hall after communion to play a Family Feud type game about Halloween and Orthodoxy, while getting ready for the Trunk or Treat.

Chili Cook Off (Today)

The Chili Cook Off is upon us! Hope you are all ready for some delicious chili and may the best man, woman, or spooky ghost win!

Georgie's 29th Birthday Party (November 6th)

Join us next Sunday after Liturgy from 12-4 PM for Georgiana Glover's 29th...80th...Birthday Party. Everyone is invited and it should be a great time.

Open Mic (New Date - November 12th)

David Rozdilski approached Fr. Stephen and the parish council about a possible outreach idea he had for an open mic/talent show type event that would be held every first Saturday of the month. What he is proposing is that we have something in the Hall's Bar where anyone in our community, young and old can come and play music, tell jokes, share a story, whatever while drinking coffee/BYOB and hanging out. This is an interesting idea and we are going to try it on November 12th after Vespers at 6 PM. There is a flyer in the Narthex that has all the details. Please spread it around and help make this a fun and great outreach with our community.

AFA Vs. CSU (November 19th)

Tickets are available and have been printed out. You can pick them up from Fr. Stephen after Liturgy and any time before the day of the game. We are still waiting on the confirmed time for the game (The game is being televised nationally and Fox has the rights to flex the game to a later time if they so choose to do so. The sales rep thinks, but cannot confirm the game will be around 1 pm and does not think they will flex it to 6 pm, due to CSU's record - he's only stating an opinion) and will post that in a later bulletin. Also, if you are still interested in going, our sales rep confirms that there are still plenty of seats available and we can still add on at that $20 price. Those who are going and have not yet paid, please do so asap. (Check Memo: College Football)
