

ST. MARY'S HOLY DORMITION

Scripture Readings

Epistle: Galatians 2:16-20

Brethren, knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but by faith in Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law; for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified. But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is Christ therefore a minister of sin? Certainly not! For if I build again those things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. For I through the law died to the law that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

Gospel: Luke 8:41-56

At that time, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus' feet and begged Him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as He went, the multitudes thronged Him. Now a woman, having a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and could not be healed by any, came from behind and touched the border of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped. And Jesus said, "Who touched Me?" When all denied it, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes throng and press You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'" But Jesus said, "Somebody touched Me, for I perceived power going out from Me." Now when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before Him, she declared to Him in the presence of all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately. And He said to her, "Daughter, be of good cheer; your faith has made you well. Go in peace." While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher." But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will be made well." When He came into the house, He permitted no one to go in except Peter, James, and John, and the father and mother of the girl. Now all wept and mourned for her; but He said, "Do not weep; she is not dead, but sleeping." And they ridiculed Him, knowing that she was dead. But He put them all outside, took her by the hand and called, saying, "Little girl, arise." Then her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. And He commanded that she be given something to eat. And her parents were astonished, but He charged them to tell no one what had happened.

Open Mic (NEXT SATURDAY at 6 PM)

David Rozdilski approached Fr. Stephen and the parish council about a possible outreach idea he had for an open mic/talent show type event that would be held every first Saturday of the month. What he is proposing is that we have something in the Hall's Bar where anyone in our community, young and old can come and play music, tell jokes, share a story, whatever while drinking coffee/BYOB and hanging out. This is an interesting idea and we are going to try it on November 12th after Vespers at 6 PM. There is a flyer in the Narthex that has all the details. Please spread it around and help make this a fun and great outreach with our community.

AFA Vs. CSU (November 19th)

Tickets are available and have been printed out. You can pick them up from Fr. Stephen after Liturgy and any time before the day of the game. We are still waiting on the confirmed time for the game (The game is being televised nationally and Fox has the rights to flex the game to a later time if they so choose to do so. The sales rep thinks, but cannot confirm the game will be around 1 pm and does not think they will flex it to 6 pm, due to CSU's record - he's only stating an opinion) and will post that in a later bulletin. Also, if you are still interested in going, our sales rep confirms that there are still plenty of seats available and we can still add on at that $20 price. Those who are going and have not yet paid, please do so asap. (Check Memo: College Football)

Nativity Play: THE FRIENDLY BEASTS

Parents, this year's play has been given to the teachers and students to practice. It is a narration type play so there will not be as much practice needed but in the coming weeks, the students and teachers may have joint classes in the hall, so please be prepared for this.
